

Impact your neighborhood this summer. . . . Host a

Take 5 Study

A Stonecroft ministry in cooperation with Child Evangelism Fellowship

Frequently Asked Questions

What are Take 5 Studies? For 5 consecutive days, one hour each day, women are gathering to enjoy good conversation, study around a cup of coffee, tea, or ice cold lemonade while their children are close by having fun at a CEF 5- Day Club or Day Camp.

What are some of the ways Take 5 Studies occur through Child Evangelism Fellowship? Through: CEF 5-Day Clubs, CEF Day Camps, A church that is offering CEF 5-Day Clubs, or Day Camps or a VBS program

What are the benefits of Hosting or Guiding a Take 5 Study? Hosting or guiding a Take Five study provides opportunity for you to:

- Develop new friendships with neighbors
- See women grow in faith in Jesus Christ
- Easily invite women into your home
- Share your faith with others
- Short time commitment
- Opens your home for ministry

What Stonecroft Bible Studies work best for Take 5 Studies? It is best to use a beginner study that is 4-6 lessons in length. Suggestions are:

- Who Is Jesus?*
- What is God Like?*
- Life's New Beginning*
- Know the Truth*
- Why Believe*
- Connecting with God*

How many volunteers does a Take 5 Study need?

A Take Five study needs 2 volunteers:

1. A host or hostess — to open their home or porch and provide a beverage.
2. A guide to facilitate the study.

How do I order materials to hold a Take 5 Study? It's easy, just order your Stonecroft Bible studies at www.stonecroft.org or by calling 1-800-525-8627.

Does Stonecroft Ministries provide Guide training for women wanting to facilitate a study? Yes, although it is not requirement. For more information, contact the SBS Liaison.

What do women like about offering a Take 5 study?

"The short time commitment fits my schedule well."

"I like that it's one week, then it's over."

"The study was enthusiastically received."

SBS Guides

What are people saying about the impact of partnering with Child Evangelism Fellowship to offer Take 5 Studies?

"Child Evangelism Fellowship is a natural fit to partner with. We are both about evangelism; their focus is children, ours is women." Jean Hartman, SBS Liaison

"It was a great encouragement to have your ladies praying and studying during our teaching time."

Northumberland County PA CEF Director